

PCS2 is a consulting and strategic advisory firm. We leverage decades of proven expertise in government and corporate sectors to drive exceptional outcomes for your organization. Founded by West Point graduates and former U.S. Army officers, Pete and Celia bring a wealth of leadership experience, spanning roles from front-line operations to executive-level management. Our core competencies enable us to partner with clients to assess, plan and execute transformational change. We help clients identify objectives, goals, strategies, measures and actions to deliver their strategic plan while remaining true to our Core Values:

- Integrity: Clients trust us to do the right thing and to act in their best interest.
- Customer Centricity: We care about our clients' successes and seek new ways to add value.
- Innovation: We partner with our clients and leverage different perspectives to generate solutions that create a desirable future state.
- Accountability: We concentrate our efforts on helping clients implement actions that yield breakthrough results.

PCS2 excels at managing projects of all sizes and fostering success across all levels, from individual contributors to C-suite teams.
